L J. Johnson, owner of Terra Cotta, who rat second to Castley Post the other day, has entered a protest against the latter coil receiving the purse. Johnson claims that Charley Post was not entitled to the twelve-pound allow ance which was given to the horse, who had not won a purse of the net value of $900. Since June 1 last, 'fearier Post won a mater race with 'feat at Ednabeth last rail, and the Association is supposed to have sated $1,000 to the at-k-a. Daly anys the Association olders add anything, and engaquently he was entitled to the allowance. The case was to be heard to-day.

Many people, when they saw how The Forum cluar to Terra totta yesterday in the micani-aquirier race at Guitguberg, said that the last-named had no cancer in the Subgrhan. It must be remembered, however, that the race yesterday was as good as my of the trials yet made or Handical candidates. Terra totta seems singging, and while Tarri was making a result thus on min, yet, in reality, the horse won handily.

Little Minute was supposed to be real jam in the third race jesterosy. Her party commenced playing at 40 to 1 and didn't stop until the processed and appeal to 8 to 1. The distance was 18st a furious too far for Little Minute, who

LOOKING TOWARDS THE WEST.

Gen. Hooker Thinks Morrison Would fin a 6-ood Candidate for President,

WASHINGTON, May 12, -Gen. Hooker, of Mississippi, member-elect of the next House, is in town, and in an interview printed in the Star this afternoon confirms the statement made in THE WORLD this morning that the straight-out Democracy in his State is getting the best of it in the fight with the Farmers' Alliance. Asked as to the Speakership contest and the next Presidential race, Gen. Hooker is quoted as

"Mr. Crisp is a gestleman of fine attain ments and many friends. He is the favored one of a good many. Mr. Mills is in direct Committee on Ways and Means; he is an

Committee on Ways and Means; he is an improving man. McMillan is well spoken of and so are others, Haich and Springer, for instance. There are more than one or two good men on the Democrate side of the House. I notice that attempts have been made to impugn Crisps position on tariff mathers. There is no ground upon which such accusations could rest.

"Who is Missasippis Presidential favoriter" was asked.

"That question is too difficult to be hurriedly answered. We have a wealth of first-clars material available. It would not survivise too if we had to go to the West for our next nomines. Would that possibility shock and of the South? Not at ail. Fer-quality, I think it would be a good and politic and procer thing to do."

"Who is your preference?" queried the reporter.

"Oh. I really could not say at this time."

Capt. Garland was badly cut down in his race yesterday. Hammersir, his owner, expected him to be first or second, sure.
